

German courses: small groups for rapid progress

Small groups in a friendly atmosphere with competent and committed teachers, nearly all of them teach their mother tongue. With this recipe for success, combined with great flexibility and fair prices, linguasud.com meets nearly every demand since 2003. With over 70 teachers in Schaffhausen and Winterthur we teach more than 30 languages. We are therefore confident to have a suitable course for you too.

Small groups

Groups of max 6 people ensure fast and efficient learning. Courses in mini groups (2-3 people), groups of two or one-to-one tuition is also possible.

Do you have specific language requirements for your employees? We are happy to teach also in your company office.

Flexibility

A course start is possible at any time. Every participant sets his or her own pace for learning. For this reason it is always possible to try and switch groups.

The classes generally take also place during school holidays. A break will always be individually arranged within the group.

Courses are not only available over lunch and in the evening: You will even profit from a discount during daytime and Friday courses. Often German courses are intensive courses (2-5 times a week).

Free consultation and trial lesson

If you are unsure of your language level, courses normally start with a free consultation with a teacher. He or she will test your spoken and written German, so that we can offer you a free trial lesson in the best suitable course.

Exam preparation courses

We offer regularly preparation courses for the German diplomas TELC and Goethe, as well as DELF/DALF/CFP for French, DELE for Spanish and Cambridge preparation courses for English.

Language travels at original prices

We also offer worldwide language travels for fair and transparent prices without having to abandon a personal consultation. We organize the in-country courses at fair original prices: Compare for yourself!
